“ A little story about my brother, Ken. Four years ago, I sent Ken $100.00 for Christmas. I followed up a week later and asked if he could purchase a gift for himself with the money I had sent. He replied, Jim, I wanted my granddaughter to have a Christmas gift from grandpa, so I mailed the money to her.
I felt your loneliness for your family each time we talked. I will miss you and our weekly 6 p.m. telephone visits.
May you rest in peace my loving and generous brother.
Love you forever,
Jim

“ I got to know Ken when I was fortunate to purchase the assisted living community that he was part of. Ken was always very kind, and thought of others throughout his stay. He was always asking for us to send a thank you note to people or organizations that provided services to him. He looked forward to phone calls from his brother, Jim, every Sunday at 6:00. I miss Ken greatly - mostly because of the courage and humility with which he lived his life with us. I am very fortunate to have known him and am grateful to have a team that helped him in his last stop in this life. Godspeed Ken!

“ Ken was one of the kindest, most humble persons I have ever met. Very soft spoken, always considerate of others, and grateful for any kindness done for him. We thoroughly enjoyed having him at our assisted living facility, and he will be missed by many here. Godspeed my friend.
