“ I have a host of memories of Larry, so I share the ones that have stuck with me over the years. I remember when I was learning to drive, he and Kenny Applehans would drag the trash and burn barrels as though they were cars, then I would drive the car out onto Newport St, come into the drive and then park between the barrels to learn to parallell park. He was always ready to laugh and have a good time. He will be missed and long remembered. To his youngsters and Carolyn I offer my most heartfelt and sincere condolenses. May God be with you lall.
