“ She was a 2nd mom. We sun tanned, camped, rolled cigarettes, ate fry bread, road motorcycles. You name it. Could not have grown up with a better friend, mom, or neighbor. She is a true gift from God. We will cherish many memories forever. Diana

“ Rich & LaVaughn you have been such good friends of my parents. I will always remember going to the CB&Q RR picnics in Thermopolis, going to dances at Lost Springs, Cottonwood Hall, Hubard's Cupboard, Powder River, Orpha, WY, the Moose Lodge & American Legion in Douglas. Going out to the Hughes Ranch sledding. I enjoyed working on the Extra Gang at Glenrock right after I got out of High School and LaVaughn's good cooking while on this RR Gang. So many good times and all the fun we all had. God Bless LaVaughn and RIP. Dan Brownell, Rawlins, WY son of Vern & Ruby Brownell
