“ Dear Barry and Danny, Betty has kept me posted on Linda’s courageous battle with cancer through the years. Despite everyone’s prayers, our Lord has brought her peace in a way not of our choosing. Barry, you have been a mainstay, and now you and Danny have a lot of changes before you. Danny, you are a fortunate boy to have had such a wonderful, loving Mom. She will always be in your heart? cheering you on at your basketball games and encouraging you along life’s path (and telling you to be careful flying!). Lord, we pray that You have gathered Linda in Your loving arms for all eternity. - Jim and Marianne

“ I knew Linda very well, while serving in the Army in Germany. I remember the day she arrived and the day she left.

To know Linda was to love her, and I count myself lucky to have been one of those people.

She was one of the most universally liked people that I have ever met and she will be greatly missed by her friends.

My thoughts and prayers go out to her family and hope that they can find some comfort in the fact that she was so well loved by her family and friends.

“ Linda was simply the sweetest soul I ever knew. She will be terribly missed. I am so thankful for the wonderful family and friends she had to support her.

On a trip to Florida, when we were at Ft Gordon, my sister said, "She is so sweet and QUIET, why is she YOUR friend?" I answered that she was too nice to defend herself, which was very close to the truth. I would wake her at noon on Saturdays and say, "Lets go do something even if its wrong....."

Although you couldn't do too much WRONG with Linda. I was very lucky to have been her friend. I know she will always be in our hearts. I only heard of the service at 2:20 on Saturday, so I am a couple of days late, But Linda would have expected that.....

“ Words cannot express the sincere gratitude for everyone's compassion and caring for Linda and us in our time of need. Thank you for all the cards, flowers, food, visits, tributes and prayers.

We had a picture of Linda beside her casket, and inscribed in the picture frame said, "What lies behind us, and what lies before us, are tiny matters compared to what lies within us". We felt like that was Linda to many others and us. We know she will find comfort being remembered by people who cared. Thanks to everyone, from the bottom of our heart, for the generosity, and may God Bless You.
