“ Linda and I shared fun times growing up as children. Playing with paper dolls, playing baseball with all the other kids in an empty lot, a game of marbles trying to win the other persons cat eyes, and best of all sitting on the shed roof eating rhubarb from somebody's garden during the summer just talking. Those memories will always keep Linda alive in our hearts. God welcome you home Linda and pray for us left here.

My condolences to Tuffy and the family during this difficult time.
