“ I just wanted to convey to all the Scotts and Childs and all their kids and other relatives and friends of Lois that I am so sorry for your loss. I remember Lois as a very sweet, vivacious and classy lady and I always remembered her and Don as an IDEAL couple who were an example to everyone that knew them about real love, committment and family. You all were blessed to have them in your life. My prayers and thoughts are with you in this time of loss.
