“ To Kay's Family

Kay and I were childhood friends, I will always remember her as my friend Kay Kay and I called her. We did many fun things as kids, riding bikes, riding my horse, gathering eggs, egg fights, she taught me to milk a cow, with Mae's help. I have thought of her over the years, but not contacted her, I am sorry I did not. I know you will all miss her, as will I. She was and will be always my friend.

Thank you so much for your words. My daughter is her granddaughter and she looks so much like her from what we have been told. The memory you shared made us giggle. My daughters name is Caleigh and her nickname is Kay Kay not knowing that was her grandmas nickname.
