Arrangements are under the direction of the Colyer Funeral Home and friends may send their condolences to the family at www.colyerfuneralhome.com. Marilyn died, peacefully in her sleep, at her home in San Marcos, California on January 28, 2011 and is now resting in the arms of Jesus. Marilyn was born August 23, 1939 in Lingle, Wyoming to Edward and Lillian (Richardson) Clark. She graduated from Veteran High School and went on to the University of Wyoming where she graduated with a Bachelors Degree in Nursing and then began her nursing career in Wyoming and later in California. In April, of 1962, she married Dan Lazzarevich. To this union two girls, Dana and Renee, were born. They later divorced. She married a college friend, Bill Howell on November 9, 1996. Marilyn had a "ZEST" for life and people, and the gift of caring for others. She loved to fish and do any kind of adventurous activity. There was never a dull moment when she was near you. She loved being around people and chatting on the phone. No matter what the Lord gave her, she handled it with enthusiasm-even though she had to deal with some health issues. She put other peoples' needs before her own. Marilyn grew up on a ranch in Goshen Hole, Wyoming which is west of Veteran, and she adored the "wide open spaces". She was able to relive the memories of her childhood on a trip out there in July 2010. Marilyn was extremely proud of the accomplishments of her 2 daughters and 5 grandchildren. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends. Marilyn is survived by her 2 daughters, Dana Fudurich of Del Mar, California and Renee McLaren of Costa Mesa, California; two sisters, Lois Waggoner and Janice (Herman) Domson both of Torrington, Wyoming; 5 grandchildren, Jordan, Justin, and Maddie McLaren of Costa Mesa, California, Chloe and Clay Fudurich of Del Mar, California; and many nieces and nephews. Preceding her in death were her grandparents; mother and father; 2 brothers, Bob and Don Clark; nieces, Cindy Domson and Bonnie Murray; Nephews, Scott Waggoner and Grant Clark.

“ Of course I remember Marilyn from her days in Goshen Hole, but more from the time she lived with her mother Lil west of Torrington. I lived next door to Lil's new house. And she was enthusiastic. I don't think I saw Marilyn after she completed her nursing degree. I wish she'd have lived longer. I drove wheat truck a couple harvests with Lil in the passenger seat to keep me from getting lost. Who knows? Marilyn may have been shirt-tail relation through Cary Brewer and/or Clara Morrison--both were my great aunts: Aunt Cary was married to Paul Brewer, the brother of my grandfather Roy Brewer, and Aunt Clara was Grandma Brewer's sister. If they were related to the Clark family, the exact tie is lost to me back in the homesteader days.
