“ Dear Marilyn,

What can i say to you that you haven't already heard? We talked so many times over the back fence or on the phone that i feel like i've known you all my life. We've laughed and shared the news, talked about the weather, politics, our neighborhood, dogs, everything under the sun. I loved calling you and just visiting. You were so much fun. Two Irish girls giggling together. Watching you slip away has been agonizing. Now the back fence visits will end, and there will be no more phone calls. I will miss you every day, because i always knew there was a friend for me in the yard behind me. You taught me all about the history of the country "up north", something i cherish so much. From now on there will not be a day that goes by that i will not think of you. You were an anchor point for me, giving me wisdom that in my immaturity i lacked. There is a place in my heart where loved ones that have passed go, and you will be there now. I will always feel your loss, and i will always remember you. Your memory will live with me as long as i do, and that is a promise. Count on the fact that i'll keep it. I love you.

“ Sally and family,

Your mom was so special to all of us! She treated each one of us as if we were her own. Such a wonderful woman and now a wonderful angel. My life is better for her being in it!

*The Lord is my portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in him.
The Lord is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him. It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord.
Lamentations 3:24-26*
