

Mark Edward Englebretson

June 12, 1953 - January 22, 2014

MARK EDWARD ENGLEBRETSON

Torrington, Wyoming – Mark Edward Englebretson, 60, died Wednesday, January 22, 2014 at his home in Torrington, Wyoming.

Casual memorial services will be held 2 p.m. Tuesday, January 28, at the Colyer Funeral Home Chapel in Torrington, Wyoming with Pastor Rick Cederholm officiating. Burial will be at a later date. Cremation has taken place. Arrangements are under the direction of the Colyer Funeral Home and friends may send their condolences to the family at www.colyerfuneralhome.com.

Mark was born June 12, 1953, in Huron, South Dakota the son of Richard John and Joan Nadine (Sporrer) Englebretson. He grew up in Huron, where he graduated high school in 1972. After graduating, he started working right away for the rail road. Mark was able to work for the rail road while he attended college at Black Hills State in Spearfish, South Dakota. He resided in Huron until the rail road closed down; Mark was relocated to the South Morrill yard. Mark met and fell in love with Lynn Taylor. They were married June 12, 1997 and resided in Torrington. He retired from the rail road in October of 2013 with 40 years of service.

Mark collected casino memorabilia, especially casino ashtrays. Together, Mark and Lynn created www.nevadacasinoashtrays.org.

Survivors include his wife Lynn of Torrington; his daughters Angela (Steve) Savage of Lynnwood, Washington and Shelby Englebretson of Torrington; his step son Allen Taylor of Gering, Nebraska; and three grandchildren, Casandra

Garcia, Marcus Florez and Kyleigh Savage.
Preceding him in death were his parents.

Tribute Wall

GH

“ George And Lisa Hernandez lit a candle in memory of Mark Edward Englebretson

George and Lisa Hernandez - January 27, 2014 at 04:16 PM

RO

“ Cousin Roy & Mark

Roy - January 26, 2014 at 07:12 PM

RO

“ Lynn, Angie, Shelby, Allen and all your families:

I was shocked and stunned to learn of Mark's passing. He and I had some terrific times together while growing up in Huron, SD and I will never forget him. Although we are all so sad he is gone, we can still visit him any time we want to -- in our memories -- where he will always be waiting.

*With my deepest sympathy,
Cousin Roy
Las Vegas, NV*

Roy - January 26, 2014 at 07:06 PM

RE

“ Roy Engelbretson purchased the Basket of Memories for the family of Mark Edward Englebretson.

Roy Engelbretson - January 26, 2014 at 06:54 PM

DB

“ you will truly be missed old buddy. I am very sorry Lynn don boyer

don boyer - January 25, 2014 at 09:34 PM

DR

“ Truly sorry for your loss. Mark was a good friend to me and will always be missed and remembered.

Deb & Eric Romig - January 25, 2014 at 08:13 AM

DR

“ Deb And Eric Romig lit a candle in memory of Mark Edward Englebretson

Deb and Eric Romig - January 25, 2014 at 08:10 AM

MM

“ We wanted to send our condolences to Mark's family. We too, know the feeling of loss. It is never easy to part with our loved ones. The world can seem like a very cold and difficult place. After every rain storm though, there is sun light. Our Creator provides us with a beautiful promise at Revelation 21:3,4. He promises us of a time when the distresses of this world will be a thing of past. I hope that those verses will bring you comfort and hope.

Marie Mile - January 25, 2014 at 07:23 AM

RB

“ Rod And Teresa Baros lit a candle in memory of Mark Edward Englebretson

Rod and Teresa Baros - January 24, 2014 at 05:46 PM

KP

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. May your memories of him make you smile when you're feeling down.

Kim Pittman - January 24, 2014 at 12:44 PM