“ Dear Family,

I wish to express my sympathy regarding the loss of your loved one, Maxine. 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 encourages us to comfort one another. Our family experienced a loss earlier this year and received many kind expressions of sympathy. Our greatest comfort came from God's word the Bible. It was most comforting to reflect on the words of Jesus Christ when he assured us that there will be a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) He backed up this promise by proving that he has power over death. He resurrected many people during his brief stay on earth. He felt the pain of loss because he cried when he learned of the death of his friend, Lazarus.(John 11:35) He cried although he knew that he had the power to awaken him from the sleep of death and he did awaken him.(John 11:43,44) Our loving Heavenly Father, Jehovah God has given us the promise that one day there will be no more death, tears, pain or mourning.(Revelation 21:3,4) I pray that your family have comfort and hope during this difficult time.
