“ Mekenna, I am going to miss your wonderful personality. Your sweet smile. All the times we talked on Facebook. You were such a wonderful mother to those beautiful children that you and Zach brought into this world. You were taken away from us too soon and God only knows the reason why, but we miss you so very much. I love you mekenna.

“ I remember meeting Kenna at a party at my home. It is likely that Saadet and Vanessa were present as well. Kenna and Zach sat together and I learned more about herself and their relationship. In particular, Kenna shared about being pregnant. After she and Zach left, I felt very happy that Zach was starting a family with this young woman. Kenna will be missed. “ Mekenna was always so cheerful in middle school. She loved typing and was so good at it. She was so efficient with her time in class she would almost always finish the assignments before anyone else. I enjoyed having her in class as well as in YW, our church youth group. She was fun, loving, and creative. She will be missed.
