“ We wish to express our sadness to the surviving children. Although we are far from where she was buried, our thoughts are with the offsprings during their mourning period. Please know that we thought highly of Mildred and her Husband, Rudy. May they at last be together in heaven. Please accept the heartfelt condolences from the entire Montano family, Lawrence, Pauline, Elvira, Manuel, John, and Mary Lou. May God bless you all.

“ I did not know either Rudy or Mildred, but my parents, Wallace and Dorothy Newton were good friends of them both. They also attended many meetings of The Farmers Union Organization with them. My parents always talked about them so much that I feel like I know them. We all wish the family Sincere Sympathy.
