“Lori graduated school with my brother, Bob, but I was only a grade behind them-classmates with Sally (Robinett) Cole. Lori was usually quiet, but also had a mischevious side. She had a sparkle in her eyes when something was going on. Her smile was contageous. I'm happy to see that she made a good life for herself, and that you were able to enjoy living close by.

My condolences to your family, and may God a watchful eye over you.

“Myrna, Angie & Family:

I just learned last night about Lori. Your family was such a big part of my younger childhood, and I am deeply saddened by her passing. Lori was one of those people who I always thought of as my friend.

I am sorry I could not be there to say goodbye in person. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ I was so sorry to hear about Lori death. I did not know she was in hospital as I tried to call her and no answer on cell phone and was shocked to see her obituary come out in the paper. I knew her from work and then from the hospital when she went there and from her going with Gary Lisman. I saw her and played keno and had lunch with her and then she was gone. May God be with you and see you through all of this, as I know in my heart that Lori is in a safe place now and will hurt no more. She is home with our savior. May she rest in peace.
