“ Otto was my self-defense and accident investigations instructor at EWC back in the late 70's. He was one tough guy in self-defense and we all took home bumps and scrapes along with our new knowledge. He was a great teacher because we always knew he really cared under that tough exterior. We used to tease him and call him "Mein Hairless". We would generally be rewarded with an invitation to box. I have many, many fond memories of times spent with him at the school and as an intern riding along on patrol. He will be missed.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Otto and to call him my "friend" for many years. He was one of the finest police officers I had ever worked with.

He will be missed greatly by all.
