“ When you left us a piece of me died with you. Thank You for being the Best Friend a Grandaughter could have ever had, I am who I am today because of your loving me for who I am. I try everyday to be the Grandmother to my grand children that you where to all of yours. Thank You for all the things you taught me and I will try to carry those on. I to as Brad said will miss so many of your special cooking dishes their was always a little bit of that Grandma magic in them. I Love You so very much and will miss you here on earth and look forward to the day we will see each other once again.

“ I know Grandma and Grandpa are happy together again. I remember our phone calls over the years and it saddens me to think I will never hear her voice again. On our last visit to Torrington Jenny and I stopped by to see Grandma. We reminisced over the happy times Jenny and Tara had at her house with the toys she kept at her house for the grandkids, especially the empty pill bottles that Tara and Jenny enjoyed playing with. I remember Grandma affectionately recalling the times she watched Melody when she was little.

I too have fond memories of Grandma's cooking. My favorites were the pin wheel cookies and black berry dumplings.

You will be greatly missed Grandma.
