“ Carol... I so remember your mom and spending time with you in her home. She was a lovely lady and put up with us as teenagers! I remember staying at your house and she made yeast donuts for us ... What a treat! And, her helping with you hosting my bridal shower so many years ago. Lovely woman who was a hard working, caring mom. My thoughts are with you. So hard to lose our parents. Becky Kent Hood

“ Reba was the kindest, gentlest, and most loving person I think I have ever met. She began a wonderful lasting legacy in the raising of her siblings, children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She also endured many hardships and devastating losses with grace and dignity. I feel blessed to have known her and she will always have a special place in my heart . I'm sure that she is in Heaven celebrating her new found freedom and joy with all of her loved ones who passed before her. We will miss her here, but we are so happy that she has passed through the veil and into the loving arms of Jesus for all of eternity. God bless her and all of her family.
