Richard "Ozz" Brewer, 96, of Lingle, Wyoming passed away on November 21, 2023, in Torrington, Wyoming. He was born on March 3, 1927 in Lingle, Wyoming.

Ozz, as he was affectionately known, will be remembered for his dedication to his family, his service to his community and country, and his love for farming. Ozz proudly served his country as a member of the Wyoming National Guard. His military service was a testament to his bravery and commitment to defending his country. After his honorable discharge, Ozz pursued a career as a farmer. He dedicated his life to working the land and found great joy in the agricultural industry. Ozz's hard work and perseverance were admired by all who knew him.

In his free time, Ozz was an avid sports fan and enjoyed cheering on his favorite teams.

He had a deep appreciation for big band music which he shared on Sunday mornings with listeners of the local radio station. Ozz was also a passionate supporter of veterans and veterans' activities, always lending a helping hand to those in need.

Ozz is survived by his nephew, Steve (Kathy) Brewer, and his niece Jackie (Brent) Little.

Ozz was preceded in death by his father, Harry Brewer, his mother, Margaret Brewer, his brother, Jack (Ethel) Brewer, and his sister, Maxine (Jack) Moyer.

Ozz will be deeply missed by his loved ones and all those who had the privilege of knowing him. His legacy of dedication, kindness, and love will continue to inspire us all.

The family would like to send our thanks to all at the Goshen Care Center for taking such good care of Ozz during his final months.

Rest in peace, Ozz.

“ My Dad, Bob Freimuth (and his brother, Don Freimuth) were life-long friends of Ozz. So many memories my Dad had about great times spent with Ozz, and I had the good fortune to spend times reminiscing with both of them together on a couple of occasions.

Bob passed away recently and I was trying to contact Ozz to let him know. And I saw that Ozz passed less than 2 months prior.

I would love to talk to Ozz's family to send the regrets of the Freimuth family on behalf of Bob. Feel free to contact me at jlfmiscmail@gmail.com. Thank you and best wishes.
