“ Rick thank you for your service for this country. Veterans will always have a special place in my heart, Rick married my sister on March 3, 1972 they were still in the service until January 1973. discharge from the service took him back home. Rick always had a job and provided as well as he could for being in Wyoming. Rick was good to our boys when we would go visit them from Texas. We were able to go a lot of places we would not have been able to afford without having family there. We were able to see his brother Bruce before he passed away. We will miss you, but we hope you are resting in peace after your illness. Love ya Cynthia Leake
