“ My sincere sympathy to Bob’s daughters. Mr. Thomas was my favorite high school teacher and mentor. I took every business class with him as instructor, office practice being my favorite where he gave me instruction and life advice. I was blessed with the honor of being asked to babysit one of his daughters a few times. Later in life I became Facebook friends with him where we were able to catchup on our current lives. My favorite memories are: “Mack The Knife” being his favorite song . Another—during one “Business Law” class we were all talking about life and someone jokingly said how we weren’t discussing our lesson. Mr. Thomas replied to us “there’s more to learn in life than what is written in a textbook.” Another— As my high school Sr. Class was lined up to enter gymnasium for graduation Mr. Thomas told us “look around and remember this because you will never all be together again.” I am Thankful to have had Mr. Thomas (and Bob) in my life. God bless you all.
