“ R.I.P. Ron

I have some wonderful memories of you coming to our home and enjoying a meal with us, and the many days and hours you spent with me, Jamie teaching me different things about my computer, sharing about different software programs in regards to photo apps. Yes, Jim and I have some very wonderful memories of times spent with Ron.

Ron always had a smile on his face, and always spoke with kind words about others.

Ron and Jim had some long conversations as they were both born in South Dakota only living a short distance from one another and then the years that Jim served as Chief of Police for Deadwood, South Dakota. Both of them loved visiting about the old days in South Dakota.

Ron you're going to be sadly and deeply missed by all who knew you but never will you be forgotten.

We, Jim and Jamie loved you Ron and will always love you.

My deepest sympathy to Ron's children, grandchildren and to other family members and friends. Ron told many loving stories about his family.

God has called a very special "ANGEL" home. You have taken your next journey to the promise land of heaven, A place we will all meet again someday.

God Bless You Ron !
