“ A wonderful and loved man has joined the shining stars that brighten our world. A finer gentleman cannot be found. Ron rented a home to me when no one would take a chance with me moving here from out of state. I had no employment and 2 dogs. Ron and I have been close friends since January 2005. Our visits were often. He shared stories of his wife Carol and his children that he dearly loved. He touched many people and we will all miss his kind soul, and huge smile. Love you, Ron.

“ My brother, Ron, was such a loving brother to myself, my husband, Dan and my sister, Mary Ellen. He was also a very generous Christian man. I am so glad he is with our Lord now but we will all miss him dearly. Our prayers is that his children experience the peace and comfort that only comes from God.
