“ I was so sad to hear of Rosie's passing, but grateful to know she was at home surrounded by her loved ones. When my own mother passed away, a good friend said to me "Now it is your turn to carry her in your heart, as she once carried you within her." May the sweet memories of your mother bring you comfort even as you grieve.

All my love, your cousin Melissa

“ Our heartfelt condolences to the family. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. My Madrina (Godmother) was kind and was always willing to lend a helping hand. When we spoke, she always took time to inquire about my husband, kids and siblings. Always making sure we were all doing well. Our parents cherished her friendship. We all have very fond memories of her. May the Lord comfort and help you through these tough times. May you find solace in knowing that she is at peace and the Lord's promise to be reunited. I am grateful for the short visit with my Madrina days prior to her passing. Before I left, she asked "When will I see you again?" I kissed her on the forehead and responded "soon, Madrina, God willing".

“ Dearest Cousins Sandra and Patricia,

Especialy now, remember we're thinking of you, caring for you, and praying for you.

The loss of a mother is such a void...my heart still has a hole in it and it aches beyond belief sometimes. My fondest memory of Aunt Rosie is when I called and she thought she was talking to Terri...until she told me " I'm tired of talking"! She called it and I just thought to myself...excuse me.

Please know that we're sending love and prayers your way and may Aunt Rosie's soul and all the souls of the faithful departed, rest in God's mercy and peace. We are praying that rosary right along with you.

With all our love, Jean, Winston and Terri
