Roy attended LaGrange High School and was a member of the third graduating class from that school in 1932. He then worked at several jobs around the area for ranchers and farmers. He went to work for the Holly Sugar Corporation in 1938 at Hawk Springs, Wyoming. He married Charlotte Tate on January 24, 1942 at Kimball, Nebraska. When Roy moved up from shoveling heavy wet pulp to classing feeder cattle, he became the superintendent for the Holly Yards in Alvarado, California in the late 1940's and early 1950's. He was then transferred back to Torrington, Wyoming where he ran both the Hawk Springs and Torrington feed lots which averaged about 3000 head of feeder cattle for market. Roy also ran a farm near Veteran, Wyoming and owned and operated the Tote-Away Liquor Store in Torrington. He and his wife were co-owners of the Smart Shop in Torrington. Following his retirement from Holly Sugar, Roy ran the South Sale Barn and sold silage treatment for the Stout-wall Company. Roy loved to visit and tell stories and play jokes on his buddies. His favorite time of the year was Christmas where he put lights on anything that stood still. His presence will be missed. He is survived by his wife Charlotte; daughter Kay Wiand of Torrington; son Ed Wiand of Jackson, Wyoming; a grandson and his wife, Gary and Jessica Wiand of Milliken, Colorado; great grandchildren, Sidney and Elizabeth Wiand of Milliken, Colorado; and a sister Hazel Miller of Castor Valley, California. “ It was great to know Roy, he would come and see me when I worked at Jirdon's. And he knew Jerry for quite a long time and would always ask me about my family. He will truly be missed! You are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Roy was so loyal and devoted to his church. His presence always there on Sunday morning. A real Role Model for all of us! I also hope that I can be 1/2 of the gardener that he was. His soul is with Jesus! I am sure of that!

“ My day was made when Roy came into the bank to make deposits. He always had a story for me about the "women" and what they made him do. From waiting at "Adorn" while they shopped, to not wanting him up on the ladder any more. He made the simple daily things seem so humorous. Anyone who knew Roy and his family, knows that they know what family and Christmas really mean! He will be greatly missed!!

“ Now that mom (Demarius Peters) is in the nursing home in Wheatland, I'm living in the home that Roy helped dad (Merl) build. Every time I step out on the front step, I think of Roy bringing his extra cement and running the front patio for mom and dad. Roy and dad did numerous things for each other and both will be greatly missed.
