The family moved to a homestead near Veteran, Wyoming where Ruth received her education; graduating from Veteran High School. She went on to graduate from the University of Illinois at Normal, Illinois and then she taught for one year. She then married the love of her life, Glen Gorman on August 5, 1943 at St. Patrick Catholic Cathedral in San Francisco, California. The couple lived there for a year prior to Glen's discharge from the army. Ruth and Glen then moved to Guernsey, Wyoming. Ruth enjoyed being out doors, doing lawn work, and gardening. She loved boating and she and Glen were especially fond of spending time at their cabin at Guernsey Lake with their family all around them. The couple also enjoyed following the activities of their many grandchildren throughout their school years and beyond. Ruth was a member of both St. Anthony Catholic Church at Guernsey and St. Rose Catholic Church at Torrington. She was a member of the St. Anthony's CCW and the VFW Auxiliary in Guernsey. She is survived by her four daughters and their husbands, Glenda and Stanley Wood of Plymouth, Massachusetts; Barbara and Harry Alderman of Golden, Colorado; Mary Ann and Jack Davidson of Colorado Springs, Colorado; and Peg and Tom Stoneking of Torrington, Wyoming; two sons and their wives, Bill and Katherine Gorman of Wheatland, Wyoming, and Mark and Christy Gorman of Lakewood, Colorado; two daughters-in-law, Janet Gorman of Olathe, Kansas, and Cathy Gorman of Cheyenne, Wyoming; three brothers and their wives, Bob and Anita Brooks, and Reese and Janet Brooks all of Newton, Illinois, and Ralph and Roseann Brooks of Tuscola, Illinois; one sister Kay White of Nashville, Tennessee; 25 grandchildren, and nine great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, her step father, Owen Brooks, her husband Glen, and two sons, Jim and Tom.

“ When I worked at the funeral home, we did services in Guernsey and one particular snowy day I wore my tennis shoes with my "official" suit. When I had the church set up for the service, I looked down and realized that I had forgotten my dress shoes! Your folks came in and Glen got a good laugh out of that, but Ruth asked me what size shoe I wore, ran home and returned with blue dress shoes that fit perfectly! After that at any funeral they attended, Glen would say, "Got your shoes on JO?" and Ruth would stand next to him and smile. I loved your folks: they were such a testimony to a truly fine marriage and exhibited such character and grace in all they did. You are richly blessed to have had them as your parents. Sincerely, Jo Butler
