She loved attending their extracurricular activities, such as dance recitals and sporting events. In her spare time, she really enjoyed gardening and creating oil paintings of anything from people to landscapes. Sally was also very passionate about animals, and she loved spending quality time with her pets.

She is survived by her husband, Robert of Torrington; daughter Misty (Jasen) Kaufman and their children Kash, Jenna, and Jada of Torrington; daughter Tara Graves and her daughter Ava of Golden, CO; brother Brad (Lynn) Eisenbarth of Columbus, NE; and four nieces.
