Sandy was born July 16, 1951 in Torrington, Wyoming to David Delfino Negrette and Rose Herrera. On June 27 1975 she married her love Humberto Bosch Agosto who stayed by her side for forty-four years. Sandy loved to read, shop, sew, make quilts and loved to love on her family. She treasured her children and her grandchildren and embraced every moment that she had with them. Sandy spent hours making quilts for her children and her grandchildren to ensure that a part of her would always be with them when she could not be there. She had a bright smile, easy sense of humor and just a tiny bit of a stubborn streak. She worked for eighteen years as a librarian at the Glasgow Public Library. She loved her job and loved the people she worked with.

Sandy is survived by her husband Humberto, her sister Margaret, her sister Rita, her brother David, her sister Francis and her sister Marina. She is the loving and devoted blue star mother of Humberto Joseph, David Paul, Mario Carlo and Eboni Jennifer. She also deeply loved her grandchildren Miki, Desta, Michael, Selena, Alex, Zachary, Joseph, Sarah and Grace. Sandy's friends, Evangelical Church, and the little community of Glasgow, Montana were near and dear to her heart, and she will be there in spirit.
