Her family later relocated to Morrill, Nebraska, where she received her primary and secondary education. She then earned a cosmetology degree in Scottsbluff, Nebraska. Sandy married Jerry Coleman in 1969. Sandy and Jerry spent time with friends and family, hosting events, and attending gatherings throughout the community. They had two children, Christopher Lee and Stephanie Britt. Chris and Stephanie grew up enjoying Sandy's cooking, crafting, sewing, and unwavering support. She also enjoyed spending time with her coffee group, engaging with her community, and volunteering at the library and the senior center. Sandy's devotion to her children extended to her grandchildren—Delaney, Justin, Louise, Gage, Greyson, Jaiden, and Slade—and her great-grandson, Dimitri. Each of them grew up knowing the warmth, encouragement, and unconditional love of their grandmother. Sandra is survived by her two children and their spouses (Tammy and Brian); her 7 grandchildren; her great-grandchild; and her sister, Joan Schnieder (Jerry). She was preceded in death by her husband, Jerry Coleman; her parents, Gladys and Wendell Boyd; and her sister, Shirley Schultz, and brother-in-law Ed.

“ Dear family of Sandy Boyd
Sandy and I had a wonderful friendship and shared so many experiences when she and I were junior and senior at Morrill High and Lyman High fifty years ago. I will remember the Prom and Athletic banquets were memoral occassions. Sandy was beautiful in her gorgeous gowns adorned with a rose bouquet. She loved to dance and was a wonderful partner. I will remember her smile, always happy, adventurous, the life of a party and so kind to all our friends. Her parents welcomed me into their lovely home and her sisters did the same. Rest in Peace my beautiful friend, see you in Heaven.
