“ Sharon was born in an Army hospital in Yokohama Japan. When Sharon was about 6 years old, the family moved to Sublette County Wyoming. A ranch was started from scratch and by the time Sharon was about 10, she was taking care of siblings and doing housework while the rest of the family did the outside work. Sharon had a beautiful way about her -- she only saw good in everybody and carried that little ray of sunshine to everybody she met. Sharon was my sister and a very special person. My wife Diane and I will miss her greatly. The world lost a little warmth when Sharon left us. Sweet Dreams little one.

Ken Badget - a heartbroken brother.
