“ *To Sharon's family:
Sharon was an awesome lady. I remember when she first came to work at St. Joseph's Children's Home. Her smile lit up the office! She was always telling stories about her life. When Brenda was pregnant with her first son Mason, Sharon was so excited to become a grandma. She would rarely leave the office because she was afraid she would miss THE call telling her that Brenda was in labor. After Mason was born, oh how Sharon beamed. She showed pictures upon pictures of him. She always had pictures of all her grandkids on her computer or in frames around her desk. I loved her sense of fashion! She always looked so put together and professional. I was so happy for her when she decided to take the plunge and retire. She bought in to The Glitz & she was on cloud nine. That was something she had talked about for years--owning a clothing store or running a daycare. She will be greatly missed. Her smile is in the sun everyday! My thoughts and prayers are with the entire family. Angela*

“ Ed,
We were saddened to hear about Sharon. She had such a positive attitude, that we were sure that she would be the one to beat this. I'll always remember her for adding ideas to the 1st landscaping job you had---US! I'm sure she's in Heaven now with her straw hat and gardening gloves, tending the flowers. That's how we'll remember her anyway.
Your in our thoughts and prayers,
Jerry and Janet
