Andy was born in Santa Monica, CA on January 5, 1942 to Warren and Frances (Critz) Anderson. As a young man he lived a short walk from the ocean and spent much of his time on the beach swimming, playing volleyball and fishing. He attended elementary, middle school and later graduated from Santa Monica High School in 1959. After graduation he enlisted in the United States Air Force and was stationed at Warren Air Force base in Cheyenne, WY.

friends Rodney Lambertson and Jimmy Cruz, started Rebar Placing Incorporated located in Henderson, CO. The rebar placing company had much success for more than 30 years.

Rodeos in Las Vegas and spending time at their cabin in the mountains west of Wheatland, WY. Andy devoted much of his time outside on his property working on the yard, garden and tending to the pond. He always looked forward to hunting, fishing and playing golf
