“ Wanda was at the airport in Scottsbluff going through TSA She had to be in late 80s or early 90 s at the time. The TSA guy had to pat her down and found a pocket knife on her. My husband and I were there getting ready to send our daughter off to South Carolina for a school exchange trip. She saw me and asked the agent if she could give the knife to me. I caught me as funny as here she is this sweet old lady heading to Alaska for a cruise and because she was a ranch gal still carried a knife on her. A few weeks later I gave her knife back to her at Church. She also was a wonderful example of a Christian woman. She was a big influence on me and my family. Always giving me clippings from the paper for their 4-H activities. She will be missed. We love you Wanda. Tina Rudy Seth, Ethan, Megan, and Timothy.
