“ Wendy was a breath of fresh air while attending PCC. Always smiling, always willing to help - a real asset to the PCC Rodeo Team! She fit right in in Kansas, and we weren't surprised when she married a Kansas cowboy. As her PCC rodeo coach and wife, we feel blessed to have had Wendy in our lives for a few short years. RIP Wendy - you'll be missed.

“ When Wendy was little she was so shy! She wouldn't even speak to me. At my wedding the photographer had to bribe her to be in a picture with me! I was out of touch for too many years. I am so glad I was able to see the wonderful person she became. As well as a fantastic mother. I will miss you Wendy!

“ *I lived with Wendy for my first semester at PCC. She was always so full of life and so funny. I was very shy and kept to myself at first but Wendy made it easy to talk to her. We were completely different - hobbie and interest wise - but she was such a great friend. I haven't seen her in almost ten years but i never forgot her. I never will. RIP Wendy.
