“ *Billy and I were childhood friends (he lived just down the block). We would get up early in the morning and go feral cat hunting with our child like bows and arrows (no harm done). Later when he moved down by the river, we became best fishing buddies (collecting wild animals to raise along the way (baby owls and such).
Fond memories and many stories!! I am sure he will be missed!*

Jimmy Gingles Mosinee, Wisconsin.

PS. His mom cooked the greatest OKRA!

Not sure if you will see this now, but I remember you and your brother Jim. This is Bills little sister, Kaye. Thanks for your memories!
